

Camp Horstick

August 6, 2017 through August 11, 2017

To Parish Leadership

Hello

The cost of Camp Horstick is being covered by the Diocese this year!

We have created a new process for people to sign up; they fill out the registration forms and turn them into their local Episcopal Parish who will forward them to the Diocesan office.

We often get requests for youth whose grandparents attend the local Episcopal Parish, or for kids to bring friends who don't attend a Church, or attend a different denomination. Can they go? Yes, if you, the affiliated Parish, recommend them. The Parish is responsible for recommending approval for Non-Churched and or people of other denominations to attend Camp.

As the local Parish, we encourage you to get your young people involved in Camp. We have historically found that un-churched youth that attend camp end up becoming baptized, active, members of the Church, so yes, get them to Camp!

When the forms are completed please send them to the Diocesan Office so that Fr. Zook can get them registered. We have 120 (96 youth/24 adults) slots, and our ratio of adults to youth cannot exceed 4 to 1, i.e. for every four youth we need an adult volunteer. Again, there is no cost to attend for either youth or adults. The camp is set up for kids going into 4th grade and older, children younger than that must be accompanied by an adult or guardian.

Adults sleep in cabins with the youth and assure an adult presence. They are not camp counselors, crosswoods provides the councilors and programming. We provide the youth and adults.

If there are people who wish to attend that have no affiliation with a local Episcopal Church, they may still request to go by contacting the Diocesan Office via Mr. Andrew Lorenz at Andrew@werfoodsafety.com or calling and leaving a message at 715-704-0554.

This is the first year we have been able to offer Camp for no cost to the parents or the Parish, please spread the word! Our goal is to have at least 50 youth present this year!

We need adults and clergy to attend, historically we have struggled to get adults and clergy. Bishop Lambert attends every year, this is your opportunity to work with the Bishop and the youth of the Diocese, don't miss it!

Thank you, please post the attached flyer, and may you have a blessed 2017!

Alexandria Lorenz

PS. I will be in Germany attending school March through July, so I am having my father (Andrew Lorenz) helping, don't hesitate to call him if you have any questions while I am gone! His number: 715-704-0554 and his email: andrew@werfoodsafety.com.
